It was only a small mistake but it changed my life. I`m Armada that loves dolls! I adore making mini-dolls and sewing them to my clothes. I create them according to my mood: red-dressed doll- angry, green-dressed doll- delighted etc.

I work in a café sometimes because I need money for materials for my mini-dolls and I hate borrowing money from my parents. Once, I was caring coffee rapidly and BANG! “Have you gone crazy?! Watch out!”Coffee`s spilled all over his shirt! I`ve been begging him for ten minutes for him to let me wash his shirt. After the washing, I`ve returned it to him. The following day, I saw him again in the café. He was grinning and my instinct`s alarmed. The man approached me and turned around. My eyes sewed to his shirt!

It turned out he was a designer and he`s hired me as his assistant. Go, go, go mini-dolls!
