Hi John,

Happy to hear you're coming to Serbia.

If you like fun places you can go to the 5D cinema. I go there all the time with my friends.

There are a lot of parks too. There's the park Saint Sava, Park Čair, the Fortress... I also like walking by the Nišava river. There's a park there too, but I can't remember the name. In front of my building and in many other places there are playgrounds. In the summer there is a theme park too. To tell you the truth, I really didn't know your parents like old buildings. The school I go to is very old and it's a town monument. We also have an old museum in the city. There is a town history exhibit in progress, so if your parents want to learn more about Niš, the tickets are free!

The oldest Serbian hotel is right here in Niš, too. It's called the Ambassador but it isn't working any more because people don't stay there.

Maybe you don't know this, but Roman emperor Constantine was also born in our city so you can see his palace if you want.

Love,

Maria

P.S. Hope you write back soon, and can't wait for you to come here
