

A1

Why I love my Mom

Moms are what make the world go round – they're the glue that holds this whole world together. My Mom always seems to know when I need a helping hand. She loves me and always tells me so. She smells like apples. She always makes my friends feel welcome in our home and makes them delicious treats. She reads me LOTS of stories before I go to bed. My Mom understands my moods and knows exactly how I'm feeling.

Ivana Anđelković