This is what I like to eat

Every morning I eat an apple, one spoon of honey and I drink a glass of hot water. I usually eat some bread, cheese and meat for breakfast. I always drink a glass of yoghurt. After breakfast I always eat something sweet, for example one piece of cake or a piece of chocolate.

Lunch is an important meal in my family. We often have salad with tomatoes, onions and cucumbers and we always have dessert. My mother is good at cooking, and my father too. He makes pancakes every weekend. For dinner I eat the same food just like for breakfast, but I don't drink yoghurt. I drink milk. There is one thing I don't like to eat – green beans!
