Traditions from my region

Every nation has their own traditions. In Serbian nation there are lots of traditions. Christmas is a very popular holiday. We celebrate the day of birth our Lord Jesus Christ. Before Christmas we celebrate Christmas Eve when we bring straw into the house. Our mother throws candies, money, nuts and we follow her around the table. In the morning on Christmas day our cousin brings in the Christmas tree and throws it into the fire of our stove. Usually it's the same boy every year and he's the first one who comes into the house.

I like Christmas because it feels cozy and warm around my heart.
