Dear Diary,

This time tomorrow we'll be flying to America for a couple of weeks. Mom and dad are packing while I am writing this entry. I will miss my home and friends while we are gone. This is the first time I travel so far away. Serbia is a good place to be, even with all the drama going on, it makes me sad leaving even though I know I will come back. Tomorrow I will be in New York looking at the busy streets and people. Can't wait to go to the top of the statue of Liberty. We will be in New York for four days and then we will be going to see our friends in Oregon.

I will be really happy to see them. I think we will stay with them for one or two weeks. It will be really fun going to America and I am already really excited.

See you soon,

Manuel
