Why I love my Dad

I love my dad because of so many reasons, but here are some of them. I love him because he is so funny and he always makes me laugh. He also has a big heart. My dad loves my mom, well he also loves tennis. He plays it every single day! And always wins. But he loves me and my brother too.

He works the whole day and I am at school so we don't get to see each other so much. But when we do, we are spending that time the best we can.
