My Big Adventure

Once in the early morning, I woke up and saw my dad working on the computer. I was so happy but also sad, because he was working in such a sunny day. I said to him: "dad, can we go for a ride in town?" He said: „ OK we can go". Then we went in the basement and got our bikes.

When we got out, we were attacked by a terrorist ( just kidding), we went across the bridge and went in a bakery to buy some pizzas. When we got out we saw two dogs that weren't aggressive, just hungry. We bought them food.

Now you tell the story (just kidding)
