The Olympic Games

The Olympic games have been around ever since.

They reflect the life of Rome and Greece. The Olympic athletes participated in various performing arts and now at the 21st century Olympic games to play sports.

This year the Olympic games will be held in London. Among Serbian athletes who will participate are Serbian handball players who won the second place at European Championship. Then Serbian waterpolo players qualified as well. Of course, Novak Djokovic the world's best tennis player who won all the possible tournaments goes to the Olympic games 2012.

The Olympic games are very famous in the world and I hope that the Serbian athletes will win.
